Payments made in excess of 35% are refundable upon written notice of cancellation from client not less than 61 days prior to scheduled arrival. We strongly recommend that all resort guests purchase travel insurance. A short resort season prevents us from making exceptions to our 60-day cancellation policy. You agree to reimburse Sonora for the full cost of any damage to Property caused, accidentally or otherwise, by any guest within your group at Sonora. Waiver

Reservation/Schedule Changes

Every effort will be made to comply with all the specifications, details and schedules which apply to a confirmed booking. However, circumstances may arise which require that certain events, plans, details, specifications or schedules be revised or cancelled in respect of a booking or the travel arrangements, planned activities or charters in connection with a booking. Sonora reserves the right to make such revisions or cancellations as may be reasonably required without prior notice and accepts no liability of any nature in connection with same.

Rights Reserved

Sonora reserves the right in its sole discretion to refuse to accept a reservation or to cancel any reservation made, whether confirmed or not, at any time and without prior notice. In the event Sonora cancels a reservation for a reason other than a breach of these terms & conditions of booking or a Force Majeure Event, Sonora will provide a full refund of all amounts paid (including deposit).

Force Majeure

“Force Majeure Event” means acts of God, flood, fire, earthquake, tsunamis, epidemics or pandemics, war or hostilities, terrorist threats or attacks, riots or civil unrest, government order or law, national or regional emergency, labour stoppages or other similar event beyond the reasonable control of Sonora or the guest.

On the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event which (i) prevents Sonora from fulfilling its obligations under a reservation, and/or (ii) prevents travel to Sonora by guest and travel insurance purchased by guest excludes compensation for such Force Majeure Event (where guest is required to provide confirmation of such exclusion from insurance provider), Sonora and guest agree to discuss in good faith available options for a reservation (including, rescheduling) and where no mutually agreeable solution may be reached, (i) on at least 61 days’ notice prior to the start of the reservation, guest may cancel the reservation and Sonora will refund all amounts prepaid to Sonora, or (ii) on notice up to and including 60 days’ prior to the start of the reservation, guest may cancel the reservation and Sonora will refund any amounts paid in excess of the non-refundable deposit or provide full credit for a future reservation, provided that, in each case, Sonora will not be liable to a guest for any other expenses or damages incurred by a guest as a result of the cancellation of the reservation.

Health and Safety

Smoking policy – smoking is strictly prohibited in all indoor spaces. Any guests smoking or vaping any tobacco, cannabis or other substance in the rooms will be fined $500.00; this fine will be added to the bill on check-out.

Children

Children and families are welcome at Sonora and we offer a discounted rate to children who share a room with their parents or stay in their own room. Due to the remote, exclusive nature of Sonora and the activities we offer, the Resort is best suited to children aged 12 or older. Additionally, there are certain activities off the Resort where children under the age of 12 would not be permitted. We also ask that at all times, children be under adult supervision and that parents be responsible for their whereabouts and respectful behaviour of their children during their stay.

Tour Operators and/or Travel Agents

Any tour operator and/or travel agent used by Guest to make reservations is, for all purposes, Guest’s agent, and agrees and represents that the tour operator and/or travel agent has the authority to receive notice of these terms and conditions on behalf of the Guest. Guest’s tour operator and/or travel agent agree to promptly notify a Guest of these terms and conditions.
